Description:

This is a rare family lineage hunting camp, untouched by modern amenities, and made to slow down and live in a secluded Northwoods for a while. This property contains 30 acres of land and a hunting cabin that has been utilized through generations of visitors. Outside of hunting season, it has been used as a retreat to write, read, be in nature, or just disconnect for a while. You can absolutely use it as-is and live like they did 100 years ago, or get an affordable foot in the door to build the cabin on your dreams on cleared land. This seller would prefer to sell to the same buyer as adjacent property MLS# 7172102 which is a wooded hunting acreage to the north/west. That property has easement rights through this target property for access, and the neighbors have been using them together for decades. Buy both properties together and you are getting a total of 60 private acres that abut to hundreds more acres of county land.
