Description:

Welcome to this stunning 10-acre rural property that truly offers something for everyone. Originally built in 1993, the home underwent a complete renovation in 2022—taken down to the studs and rebuilt with high-quality craftsmanship. A spacious living room and luxurious owner's suite were added, along with a breezeway connecting the home to a detached garage, creating a seamless and functional layout. The result is a home that looks and feels like new construction. This beautiful setting features open views, tillable land, and abundant recreational opportunities. Whether you're interested in raising animals, starting a garden, or launching a hobby farm, the possibilities are endless. The property also includes multiple outbuildings. One former garage has been transformed into a charming entertainment space, complete with a kitchen and bathroom heating & cooling. The large pole building offers ample room for storage or can be used as an animal shelter. Don't miss your chance to own this unique rural retreat!
