Description:

Outdoor Enthusiast's Dream Property – 142 Acres of Prime Hunting Land

Discover 142 acres of premium hunting and recreational land, featuring 1,000s of feet of frontage along Hay Creek and an extensive network of drivable trails throughout. This diverse habitat offers oak woods, pine and aspen stands, river bottom, open meadows, and numerous smaller clearings, making it ideal for a wide range of wildlife and outdoor activities.

Surrounded by expansive agricultural tracts and mixed woodland, this property provides exceptional opportunities for whitetail deer, turkey, bear, ruffed grouse, and waterfowl—all in one location. A riverside campsite has already been established, perfect for hunting trips or weekend getaways.

The Northwest corner of the property features an outstanding building site with easy access off County Road 152. Buffered by mature trees with a gentle southern slope toward the creek, it's perfectly suited for a walk-out home or cabin.

Located just one mile from Two Inlets State Forest, you'll have access to miles of forest roads, ATV trails, and snowmobile routes, offering year-round adventure.

This property truly has a bit of everything—a rare find for hunters, nature lovers, and those looking to build their own private retreat. Don't miss out!
