Waterfront: Eleventh Crow Wing

Status: Active

Description:

The most sought after property in all of Akeley Mn is now on the market. Are you looking to put your mark on a small town in northern Mn - look no further than the McGregor estate.

This large tract of land sits inside of Akeley city limits (city sewer and water hookups), adjacent 11th crow wing lake and the rest of the highly desired crow wing chain of lakes, within minutes of a large number of additional area lakes, 10 minutes to leech lake / 15 minutes to the park rapids area lakes all of which make fishing adventures endless and provide an abundance of boating, kayaking, canoeing opportunities.

If boating isn't your thing or your looking for a change of pace for the afternoon this estate is conveniently located on the heartland snowmobile trail that connects into the Paul Bunyan Forrest and the Chippewa forest system both of which connect Brainerd to Bemidji - Park Rapids to the Iron Range and beyond for all your atv / utv and snowmobile recreation exploring needs.

When I say this is a blank canvas with endless possibilities it is truly that. This property is perfect for a tiny home developement, public storage, acreage ranch house estates, a seasonal campground or discuss with the city possible rezoning ideas / opportunities.

The property currently has 20 seasonal campsites the produce some seasonal revenue, a tree farm and modest home / outbuildings on premise.
