Description:

This well-built log home sits on over 10 beautiful acres bordering hundreds of acres of public land ideal for trail riding and hunting. A covered porch welcomes you into the open floor plan featuring vaulted ceilings, a kitchen with custom maple cabinets, stainless steel appliances, granite countertops, and a maple butcher block island. The cozy living room offers a gas fireplace, office nook, and ample storage. The main-level primary bedroom includes a walk-through bath with a jetted tub and tile shower, while log stairs lead to a loft bedroom with a private deck overlooking the pasture and barn. The lower level includes a bedroom, full bath, living area with epoxy floors, laundry, utility room, and private library. The detached garage is split into a heated two-stall section and a single-stall area with stairs to a two-bedroom plus loft apartment. Perfect for a hobby farm, the property includes 10 oak stalls, a tack room, blacksmith shop, hay storage, and a newer steel roof. The land is partially fenced with separate sections, its own well for two self-watering stations, an arena, training area, open pasture, wooded riding trails, and direct access to hundreds of acres of public land for recreation or hunting. The property is conveniently located just 10 minutes from Hackensack and near the Crystal Lake public access—one of central Minnesota's clearest lakes with excellent swimming. Bring your outdoor toys, horses and farm animals and make this awesome property home!
