Description:

Tucked into a quiet bay on Girl Lake, this one-level, 2 bedroom/2 bathroom property offers a setting where the water stays calm, the pace feels slower, and passing boat traffic is replaced with the sounds of loons and conversation drifting across the bay. With no-wake waters shared among neighboring properties, it feels less like a busy lake corridor and more like a tucked-away pocket of the Woman Lake Chain. From here, you can boat your way to ice cream, dining, shopping, Turtle Days festivities, and everything the Longville area is known for while returning home to a quieter stretch of shoreline. The home itself has been exceptionally cared for and thoughtfully updated over time. Inside, the kitchen, dining area, and living room all face the lake, framed by floor-to-vaulted-ceiling windows that pull the outdoors into the heart of the home. Knotty pine walls and ceilings with warm wood flooring carry throughout the interior, creating a Northwoods feel. Recent updates to the appliances and bathrooms blend naturally into the home's character. The kitchen was designed for both gathering and everyday living, featuring granite countertops, an island with seating and electrical access, a five-burner gas stove, and a deep farmhouse sink. Nearby, the laundry room is far more than a utility space, offering extensive cabinetry and a long wood countertop perfect for folding clothes, organizing gear, or extra storage. The living room centers around a wood-burning stove, making it an inviting place to settle in after a day on the lake or trails. The primary ¾ bath features a beautifully tiled shower with a window positioned to bring in natural light and views of the outdoors. Outside, the large lakeside deck was designed with accessibility in mind and includes a covered porch area for shade, dining, or relaxing during summer rain showers. The walk to the water is easy with no elevation to navigate. Raised garden beds, a paved driveway, and 1.08 acres add to the property's appeal. Storage and workspace are abundant with a heated and insulated double detached garage, an additional detached garage, and a large woodshed, giving plenty of room for vehicles, lake toys, tools, hobbies, or workshop space. With over 243' of shoreline, a peaceful bay setting, access to the entire Woman Lake Chain, and a home that reflects years of attentive care, this property offers an easygoing lakeside lifestyle.
