Description:

A location like this does not come along every day. A waterfront home with a complete view of East Silent Lake. An hour's drive from Fargo and three hours from the cities, this home will become the place where family memories are made and treasured. This three-bedroom, three-and-a-half-bath home includes a separate apartment making it perfect for a multigenerational family as well as guests. With open spaces, the home offers plenty of room for gatherings and overnight visitors.

In addition to the main home, there is an 800-square-foot deck overlooking the lake above a lounging space that can accommodate additional overnight guests.

The home has been in the family for 4 generations over 50 years, with additions and upgrades as the families grew. Just five miles from Maplewood State Park where you can explore 30 miles of hiking trails. With 150 feet of lakeshore on one side of the property and acres of wetland on the other, nature abounds. Be sure to tour this wonderful lake home!
