Description:

Imagine sitting on your lakeside deck, nestled under the towering pines overlooking the shimmering waters of the Whitefish Chain lapping at the perfect sand beach of your incredible new log style cabin on Butternut Point. Luxurious and rustic best describe these architecturally designed and Nor-Son built cabins with perfection in every detail. Manicured grounds, gated entrance, flagstone patios and walkways and just 7 total homes make this newly formed Association just what those looking for the finest in lakeside living without the maintenance worries have been waiting for. Come inside after a day on the lake and enjoy dinner together and on those cool evenings gather around the magnificent stone fireplace in the great room. Custom finished Maple cabinetry, hardwood plank flooring, tastefully designed dining areas, ample closet and storage space and best of all, plenty of sleeping space with 2 full bedrooms and a cozy sleeping loft for those important young visitors in your life.
