Description:

Behold a beautiful backyard framed by tamarack pines and serene lakes which one of them is a private lake on the State land to the South of the house. Great views and fishing! The afternoon sun casts a radiant glow, enhancing the hardwood sheen that defines the impressive interior of this home. Distinguished by its unique design and seamless flow, this residence stands out architecturally. Special features such as the reading room loft elevate its charm and functionality. Adding to its allure, the property extends to two small lakes with fishing available. Attached parking provides direct access to the basement, which boasts a second fireplace, a bathroom, and ample utility and storage space. A spacious detached garage plus lean-to offers abundant room for additional vehicles, boats, and RVs—perfectly complementing this expansive property. Adjacent parcels available directly on Little Mantrap Lake and the convenient access to that chain, presenting a rare opportunity to further enhance this waterfront haven.
