Description:

This hunting retreat in a private and secluded setting provides excellent deer, bear, turkey, and grouse habitats. The property consists of high ground, some natural wetlands, a good mix of trees, and open fields that could be pastured, or you can add food plots. There are thicker areas on the property that provide bedding and sanctuary. It has a couple of small ponds that the local wildlife seems to be using. Also, there is so much potential with the way the property is laid out. The treestand sights seem endless with all the pockets of timber, funnels, and pinch points. There is a trail system, and tree stands that are bonuses to outdoor enthusiasts. The North side of the property's boundary is state-ground to allow your hunters more opportunities. Perfect for making memories! The 120 +/- acre parcel will be split from a larger parcel. New PID and tax amount TBD.
