Waterfront: Boy

Status: Pending

Description:

The loons are calling from Boy Lake! This seasonal cabin sits right near the water's edge of the fabulous Boy Lake on the Leech Lake Chain of lakes. This property is the ideal location to get away from it all in a quiet area of the north country. The lot could be a great site for building a new cabin or dream home. The original cabin may not be salvageable, however, it may have some value to others in its current location at the water's edge-leaving for new owner to decide, maybe fixed up for a bunk house. It is peaceful and quiet here, aside from the loons calling and birds singing. Boy Lake is a large, deep lake and is said to be a good fishing lake. Book a showing today!
