Description:

For the first time in 51 years, this cherished home on Inguadona Lake is available, offering a unique opportunity to make your own lasting memories. The owners have had generations enjoy fishing, swimming, playing volleyball, and watching sunsets; they hope this joy continues for generations with a new family. Beautiful windows face the lake, with breathtaking views and a delightful breeze that flows through the surrounding trees. A wood-burning fireplace extends the seasons, warming the entire home with circulating air. The open floor plan connects the kitchen, dining, and living rooms, creating a welcoming gathering space. This 3 bedroom/1 bath cabin has built-ins throughout and includes extra storage in the kitchen. An upstairs loft provides additional space for guests. Kayak or canoe into Little Rice Lake from this quiet, end-of-the-road property that spans over 9 acres and owns 170' of shoreline. This unique home is more than just a property; it's a legacy waiting to continue.
