Description:

This birch Lake beauty will not disappoint you! So much potential with the bunkhouse on the waters edge. There's also another out building with tongue and groove walls and ceilings, ceiling fan, carpet and lots of windows with lots of cuteness to it to be part of this property. There's also a shell cabin that has a full basement and one car attached garage that would need some repairs, but that definitely has potential as well. The main house was a 1960 built home that was added onto a 1988 so it's close to the waters edge on a very private lot at the end of the road. Be prepared to take some time this one will grab your attention! Get ready to start your legacy here!
