$395,000

120 Acres
Raw Land

11041 300th Street
Park Rapids MN 56470

Status: Active

Description:

Located just north of Park Rapids, this exceptional property offers a blend of rolling hills, mature timber, ponds, and an extensive trail system, making it a dream property. Tucked away at the end of 300th Street, it provides unmatched privacy and seclusion. Additionally, this property serves as a gateway to the back side of over 600+ acres of county public land, with access to Upper Camel Lake.

The hunting shack, though in need of some TLC, offers the potential to be revived into a functional space for years of use. Power is already on-site, with the option to add a well and septic system to suit your needs. The trail system throughout the property leads to multiple stand locations and makes accessing the public land nearby effortless. While walking the property my dog flushed several grouse, and the seller reports that the north pond is a solid waterfowl hunting spot. This property is also home to some impressive wildlife—deer thrive in these northern woods, and the area boasts a strong bear population. The mature timber on the land is ready for harvesting, providing an opportunity for income, or it can be enrolled in one of several programs to generate passive revenue.

If you're searching for the ultimate hunting property, complete with a hunting shack, power, a trail system, and access to more land for hunting and exploration, this is the place for you.
