Description:

What an amazing opportunity right here! This 4 bed 3 bath home is truly something special. If you are looking for the perfect place to host your family and friends, look no further! This home features an open floor plan that is ideal for entertaining your guests. The attention to detail with the landscaping and garden beds around the house is second to none. The oversized garage is another great feature of this property. Store all your toys and equipment in a 48x65 heated space. This place also includes an additional 30x40 barn for even more storage space. Not only does this home check a lot of boxes, it is also sitting on 73.89 acres!!! This tract is crawling with all kinds of wildlife. It is not uncommon to see deer, turkey, pheasants, grouse, and other game right out of your living room window on almost a daily basis. With the gently rolling terrain features, pinch points, food plot areas, and thick cover, this property will bring wonderful opportunities for chasing after those big whitetail bucks that this area is known for! This property has a trail system that allows you to get around the land with ease. When you walk this property, you will find heavy game trails and deer sign everywhere. This slice of ground is truly a sportsman's paradise. If you are looking for a legacy property that will create memories for you and your family, you definitely do not want to miss out on this place!
