Description:

One of Leech Lake in Walker's original homes, this Victorian gem offers breathtaking views of Walker Bay. This lake is known for its world-class fishing, offering trophy walleye, muskie, and northern pike. As Minnesota's third-largest lake with over 112,000 acres and nearly 200 miles of shoreline, it's perfect for boating, water sports, and unforgettable adventures. This property boasts 100 feet of pristine hard rock/sand frontage. Plus features original hardwood flooring in the spacious living and dining areas, a lakeside porch, generously sized bedrooms, newer decking and lakeside stairs, and a detached two-car garage. Thoughtfully maintained with many original details, it sits on a peaceful street within walking distance of two major state trails!

This property is just a short walk to the historic Chase on the Lake Resort, where you can enjoy lakeside dining, a spa, and year-round entertainment for the best of Northern Minnesota living.
