Description:

Set on 5.5 level acres with 700 feet of private shoreline, this Island Lake estate offers the perfect combination of privacy, recreation, and income potential. While the original structure was built in 1910, this home has been thoughtfully expanded over the years, offering a spacious living area and large renovated kitchen making it perfect for entertaining. Natural light floods the open living areas drawing your attention to the panoramic lake views. Imagine boating over to the restaurant on the lake for a meal with friends, or enjoying the peaceful solitude of your private sandy beach. Spend your days swimming, kayaking, or fishing in this abundant lake known for its diverse variety of fish. A boathouse down by the shore provides the perfect spot to clean your catch and store your gear.

The property's cement-floor pole barn is a perfect addition for those who enjoy boating, snowmobiling, or ATV riding. There's plenty of space for storing all your equipment, and the RV hookup, and hot tub wiring make hosting family and friends a breeze. For outdoor enthusiasts, with direct access to 400+ miles of groomed ATV and snowmobile trails and with public hunting land, golf courses and Itasca State Park just minutes away, this property offers year-round adventures.

This estate offers amazing income potential through short-term rentals. With the area being home to highly sought-after VRBOs that are often booked many months in advance, you can earn income while still enjoying the lifestyle of your dreams.

Island Lake offers a rare opportunity to own a home that blends history, modern convenience, and natural beauty. This is more than just a property; it's a lifestyle.
