Description:

Acreage and Little Hobby Farm on the edge of town. All the convenience of town living with the space and acres of being in the country. So much charm and character in this property. So many updates that are already done. New shingles, paint, furnace and Central Air, Appliances, electrical panel. Barn has been transformed into a useful space with all its original charm. House original hardwood floors were refinished and beautiful. House has original built-in Hutch and all the original woodwork. Main Floor Laundry. Huge yard perfect for kids, animals, adding more buildings if needed. Large fenced garden already established with Fruit trees and berry bushes etc. Guest cabin/She Shed for additional space. Renovated Chicken Coop is a work shop but could also easily be a Chick Coop again. You can't find property like this often, especially on the edge of town. Across the street from park in a great, quiet small town! So much potential...
