Description:

Your rare, long awaited, Leech Lake, Walker Bay Home! Just 15' off the shoreline. Step out of the entry and you'll feel as though you're aboard a luxury cruiser, with panoramic vaulted views from three sides. This design allows you to enjoy the easterly sunrise and ensures a cheerful, sun-filled atmosphere throughout the home. The interior features earth tones and tasteful finishes, making for an immediate move-in without any effort. The gourmet kitchen seamlessly opens to a spacious living and dining area, complete with lofted ceilings and a magnificent slate/stone fireplace at its heart. Step outside onto the large wraparound deck for ultimate relaxation and breathtaking views. Each level of the home includes a private bedroom with its own bath, ensuring privacy for all. The lower-level family room offers direct walkout access to the shoreline and features four custom-built bunk beds, wired for lights and electronics—perfect for accommodating extra guests or hosting fun sleepovers for the grandkids. Everyone will also appreciate the fire ring and patio situated right at the shoreline's edge, ideal for sharing fish stories and s'mores. Attached garage is insulated and has in-floor boiler heat, as well as the lower level of the home and the baths. This property boasts the largest lot in the neighborhood, with 259 feet of excellent sandy shoreline. It is beautifully landscaped with low-voltage lighting, security system with exterior cameras, well-maintained trees, and shrubbery. The home's prime location offers close proximity to restaurants, a city park, and bike trails. This is truly the home you have been waiting for.
