Description:

To My Next Family, Let me introduce myself - I'm a cozy log cabin nestled on the peaceful shores of Woman Lake, and I've been waiting patiently for you. I've stood here for many seasons, cradled by pines and listening to the waves ripple, with 100 feet of level, hard sand and gravel frontage right at my feet. The water here is clear and kind - perfect for barefoot mornings and skipping stones at dusk. My favorite place to sit with you will be on my covered lakeside porch, where the loons call and the sun dances across the water. That porch has heard laughter, held coffee cups on rainy days, and caught many whispered dreams on starry nights. Inside, I wear my years with pride - each log a memory, each creak in the floor a story. I'm not flashy, but I'm full of soul. Inside, I'm a little dusty, and my windows might be dirty (oops), but they can be cleaned. I promise I'll look brighter with just a bit of love. A charming wood-burning brick fireplace warms my heart and your toes on cool evenings, and an open loft offers extra space for sleepy heads or quiet reading nooks. The family before you painted rocks and left them along my shoreline—little treasures for others to find, messages in stone. I hope you'll do the same. Add to the collection. Leave a mark that time won't wash away. I'm ready for board games and berry-stained fingers, for quiet weekends and barefoot summers. I love campfires and wet towels and screen doors slamming. I hope you'll fill my rooms with music, marshmallows, muddy boots and belly laughs. I hope you'll let me be part of your story. I may be old, but I've still got lots of fun left in me. Can't wait to meet you! Your Cabin by the Lake (P.S. The stars are brighter here - don't forget to look up.)
