Located less than a quarter mile from Walker City Park and a public access point to Leech Lake, this home places you within easy walking distance of local taverns, restaurants, shopping, and everything that makes Walker so special. With subtle nods to mid-century architecture and design, the home features four spacious bedrooms all on the main level, a well-preserved full bath, and a large kitchen with abundant countertop space, custom maple cabinetry, and charming original touches, including a vintage Dixie Cup holder! The living room is anchored by a striking electric REAL STONE fireplace and offers an entire wall of windows dedicated to the spectacular Walker Bay views, while the adjacent dining room also enjoys those same stunning vistas. Step outside to an elevated large cement patio that captures the stunning views of Walker Bay—a perfect setting for spectacular sunrises with your morning coffee or simply soaking in the natural beauty of the lake. An additional front patio offers even more outdoor living space, while the expansive backyard boasts several flourishing gardens. The seller is even including a detailed garden “manifesto,” outlining everything that’s planted and how to care for it. The lower level is currently unfinished but holds tremendous potential for additional living space, and it includes a half bath, a separate shower, and a laundry area. With the single-stall tuck-under garage and four sheds on the property, there’s no shortage of storage.
