Description:

Welcome to this 3-bed, 1-bath home in south Brainerd. Built in 1878 and updated over the years, this one-and-a-half-story offers practical living with fresh improvements already in place. The main level features new solid-surface flooring in many of the living spaces, giving the home a crisp, low-maintenance feel. Outside, the home and detached garage have newer vinyl siding for added durability and curb appeal. The fully fenced yard provides a great space for pets, play, gardening, or simply enjoying the outdoors. Located in a long-established neighborhood, this property sits among other well-kept homes and offers a comfortable home close to local conveniences. With three bedrooms, a functional layout, and key updates already handled, it's a great opportunity for a buyer looking for value and potential in Brainerd.
