Description:

Welcome to Kabekona Village living just minutes from Walker and Leech Lake. This 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom home built in 2017 offers over 3,000 square feet of well-designed living space with an open concept layout and large windows that bring in tons of natural light.

What sets this property apart is the access to Leech Lake with two dedicated dock slips included, giving you the lake lifestyle without the high taxes of direct frontage. Whether you're boating, fishing, or just enjoying time on the water, everything is right at your fingertips.

The home offers spacious living areas perfect for entertaining, a comfortable owner's suite, and plenty of room for guests. Located in a well-maintained association, you get the benefits of a clean, quiet neighborhood while still being close to everything Walker has to offer.

If you've been looking for a move-in ready home with true lake access, this is one you don't want to miss.

Inside, the home features generous living spaces designed for family and friends to gather. Large windows bring in natural light and frame the surrounding wooded views, while an open-concept floor plan creates a warm and inviting atmosphere. With four bedrooms, including a comfortable owner's suite, there's plenty of room for hosting guests or creating a work-from-home space.

Step outside and take advantage of the beautifully maintained homeowners association that ensures the neighborhood remains pristine while offering peace of mind with shared amenities. Whether you're enjoying a morning coffee on the deck, hosting lakeside gatherings, or spending a day on Leech Lake, this property has everything you need for the ultimate Up North lifestyle.
