Description:

This edge-of-town Baxter, MN property offers a rare mix of convenience and seclusion. Located near the shopping and industry corridor, yet tucked into a wooded, spacious yard, it's the kind of place where you can be close to everything — while still enjoying privacy and room to breathe.

Sip coffee from high upon the deck, under the tree canopy while watching deer stroll through the woodsy back yard. With a strong starting point and thoughtful spaces already in place, the home invites customization and vision. Newer appliances add convenience, while the oversized utility room stands out as a versatile space for storage, projects, or work. For buyers seeking flexibility, equity potential, and a location that does the heavy lifting, this property offers a compelling path forward.
