Description:

Ultimate Northwoods Hunting Retreat! ±120-acre property near Bagley in Clearwater County offering mature timber, diverse habitat, and a proven track record of mature deer and black bear.

The land features extensive habitat improvements, including 8 enclosed hunting blinds, 4 established food plots, 500 planted trees, and two dug-out ponds that serve as wildlife watering holes and attract waterfowl. Multiple access points provide hunters the edge when positioning for the perfect wind during the hunt.

A turnkey deer camp with electric service, well, and septic provides a comfortable and functional base for hunting season or year-round use. Storage containers on-site offer secure space for equipment and gear. The property directly adjoins a large block of public land, significantly expanding hunting and recreational opportunities.

Perfect for hunters or outdoor enthusiasts seeking a private Clearwater County property with everything already in place.
