Description:

This special home has been carefully cared for with high quality updates and new construction. The small original part of the home was built in 1953 but the new master craftsmanship added quality spacious additions. Seller hired professionals to construct and create a perfect spacious newly developed home. Included is 5.7-acres utilized as hobby farm, business, food source and refuge for your soul. The perfect blend of vintage beauty and modern comfort. Seller has improved and evolved the home to be a solid structure with magnificent added beauty and value. Master craftsmanship from carefree siding, 3/4-inch hardwood floors, master bedroom retreat boasting vaulted ceiling and much more.

5.7 acres of functional space for business as well as a private haven. Includes homeowner dream paver patio and walks, plentiful wildlife to watch and view of a pond. Professionally installed landscapes, from gardens of color and beauty lasting from early spring to late fall, including winter interest. Food sources, from asparagus, to small fruits like grapes etc. also include most species of hardy fruit trees including cherry and plum trees and more. The outbuildings (all updated by an Amish carpenter!) are ready for horses, cattle, or your business(es). It's quiet, it's beautiful, and it's a lifestyle you are seldom able to find.
