Description:

This 3-bedroom, 1-bath home sits on a private 2.7-acre setting, offering both seclusion and strong long-term equity potential. A partially finished basement provides the opportunity to expand your living space and make it your own, with the home offering the ability to grow to more than 2,400 square feet.

The home features many updates throughout and is truly move-in ready. The kitchen showcases a charming farmhouse design with an abundance of cabinetry that has just been refinished, blending style and functionality.

Located just minutes from the Whitefish Chain of Lakes, fine dining, and miles of snowmobile trails, this property is perfectly positioned for both recreation and convenience. It's also less than a 15-minute drive to Pequot Lakes Schools. The oversized 3-stall garage offers excellent space to store your toys, create a workshop, or even set up a game room—the possibilities are endless. The world is truly your oyster with this versatile and inviting property.
