Description:

Rare opportunity to own a Deadshot Estates Condominium. This well-kept 1999 condo delivers quality, location, and lifestyle—no fluff. Two bedrooms, with one smartly designed as a study featuring a custom built-in Murphy bed. Two full baths. Vaulted ceilings enhance the living area. Living room, breakfast area, and bright sunroom, all frame views of Deadshot Bay and offer flexible, comfortable living. The kitchen is finished right—granite countertops and custom cabinetry throughout. New hardwood floors add warmth and value. Practical upgrades include an insulated crawl space, underground sprinklers, a whole-house air purification system, and a new roof in 2024—big-ticket items already handled. Step outside and you're minutes from restaurants, bike trails, and pickleball courts. The association includes dock access and a dedicated boat slip, making lake life easy and maintenance-free. Unique to this property: a detached single garage is available at an additional cost—a rare option within the association. If you've been waiting for a clean, well-appointed condo in Detroit Lakes, this is one you don't wait on. Opportunities like this don't come around often.
