Description:

Available for only the second time in 50 years, this extraordinary legacy property offers 164 feet of level, sandy shoreline—both above and below the waterline. The hard sand bottom and exceptional water clarity provide ideal conditions for swimming and lakeside enjoyment, with no weeds and safe, accessible entry.

The residence is a high-end custom Lands End build, thoughtfully designed for multigenerational living and memorable family gatherings. It features numerous private suites and spacious bunk rooms, all finished with premium natural materials including real wood, stone, and tile. State-of-the-art entertainment and sound systems enhance both relaxation and hosting.

The lower level is a standout, expertly designed for comfort, recreation, and seamless use of space. Every detail of the home reflects careful planning to support an exceptional family experience.

A rare offering that beautifully combines luxury, comfort, and timeless lake living—ideal for buyers seeking a distinctive legacy property to enjoy for generations.
