Description:

Discover your ultimate Northwoods sanctuary just south of Park Rapids, tucked only a stone's throw from the southern tip of pristine Long Lake. Whether you are searching for a premier hunting camp, a scenic site to build your year-round dream home, or the perfect private getaway to park your camper, this Hubbard County gem offers endless possibilities.A private driveway winds through a gorgeous canopy of mature trees, leading you directly to a cleared camping area and an ideal potential build site. The acreage boasts a highly diverse mosaic of natural habitats, featuring a mix of mature pines, robust hardwoods, lowland cover, and a strategic power line easement. This rich terrain provides the perfect combination of natural food sources, thick bedding areas, and open corridors—making it an absolute magnet for trophy whitetail deer, black bear, and wild turkey.Location is everything, and this property delivers. It directly borders over 200 acres of protected state land and sits in close proximity to local agricultural fields, an ideal setup known for producing legendary big northern Minnesota bucks.When you aren't hunting or relaxing at camp, the legendary Paul Bunyan State Trail is just minutes away, giving you immediate, year-round access to world-class biking, hiking, snowmobiling, and ATV riding. Experience the very best of the Park Rapids and Nevis areas from a private, untouched slice of paradise. Don't miss your chance to own a legacy property in the heart of the great Northwoods!
