Description:

This 8.26 acre property is located in Becker County, Minnesota within lakes country. The property includes a four bedroom, two and one half bathroom home along with multiple outbuildings that provide storage, workspace, and equipment space. The acreage offers a combination of open yard space and access to nearby public land, making it suitable for residential use while also supporting outdoor recreation opportunities.

The home sits on a private acreage setting that is positioned approximately one quarter mile off the county road. This placement allows separation from passing traffic while still maintaining access to local roads and nearby communities. A detached two and one half stall garage provides space for vehicles, lawn equipment, or recreational gear. In addition to the garage, the property includes a 40 by 40 shop building with a gravel floor. The shop structure offers a large open area that may be used for equipment storage, project space, or other utility needs. A 16 by 16 shed is also located on the property and can serve as additional storage for tools, seasonal equipment, or outdoor items.

The acreage surrounding the home provides room for outdoor activities and access to public hunting ground. A significant amount of publicly accessible land adjoins the property boundary, which may provide opportunities for outdoor recreation such as hunting, hiking, or wildlife observation. A snowmobile trail runs along the back of the property, offering direct access for winter recreation. From the trail, riders can reach Upper Cormorant Lake in just a few minutes for convenient access to ice fishing and other seasonal activities.
