Description:

Situated on a large, nearly one-acre corner lot, this charming in-town home offers space, character, and convenience just a few blocks from the school. Mature trees and beautiful landscaping create a serene setting with excellent curb appeal.

Built in 1920, the home features four bedrooms, three located on the upper level and one on the main floor, providing flexible living options. There are two bathrooms, including a private bath for the primary bedroom. Recent updates include fresh interior paint, while original charm shines throughout.

The main floor offers a walk-in pantry, convenient laundry, and an inviting dining area that opens to a stunning 34'x8' covered side porch, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. An additional covered porch adds to the homes' timeless appeal.

Completing the property is a detached two-stall garage and expansive outdoor space rarely found within town limits. This unique home blends historic character, modern comfort, and an exceptional lot size-truly a rare opportunity.
