Waterfront: Round Lake

Description:

Wake up, grab your coffee, and walk straight out to the water—barefoot, zero stairs, no hassle. Towel over your shoulder, you're at the lake in seconds. This is the kind of shoreline people spend years trying to find and rarely do.

Inside, the lake never leaves your sight. Vaulted ceilings and a wall of windows pull the outside in, filling the space with natural light and keeping every moment connected to the water.

The kitchen has been updated with granite and stainless, and the main floor layout keeps things simple with a private primary suite and laundry right where you want it.

Upstairs, the view changes everything. From the lofted level, you're looking out over the lake through the full wall of glass—elevated, wide open, and hard to walk away from.

Set on a quiet dead-end road with mature trees and a large yard, this is the kind of property where the pace slows down and summer days seem to last just a little longer.

The lower level offers daylight windows and an opportunity to create additional finished space over time.
