Description:

Escape to Nearly 40 Acres of Pure Northern Minnesota Wilderness! Tucked away just outside of Waubun, this 38.96-acre parcel offers the ultimate retreat for outdoor enthusiasts seeking privacy, adventure, and connection to nature. Featuring a beautiful mix of wooded high ground and natural marsh, the property is rich with diverse mature trees, established trails, and a pond that regularly attracts waterfowl. Nature truly surrounds you here—deer trails weave throughout the property, and grouse are abundant, making this a prime location for hunting and wildlife observation. Adding to its appeal, the land borders both tribal and state land and directly connects to over 1,000 acres of additional public land, providing expanded opportunities to explore.

Enjoy the peace and seclusion that comes with the long access road leading into the property, creating a true “getaway” feel while still being within reach of the many lakes and recreational opportunities.

Whether you're looking for a hunting basecamp, recreational retreat, or future investment opportunity, this property offers incredible potential to create lasting memories in the heart of Minnesota's great outdoors.
