Description:

Timeless character meets thoughtful updates in this inviting two-story home. Built in 1938, this property showcases early 20th century charm with beautiful hardwood floors throughout the living room, dining room, and upstairs bedrooms, along with classic rounded archways that add warmth and architectural interest. A unique rounded wall opening with wood shelving creates a subtle connection between the living room and kitchen, while the built-in dining room hutch adds both function and vintage appeal. The home has been tastefully refreshed to blend old and new, featuring a bright white kitchen with updated lighting and flooring. Warm, inviting tones and a tongue-and-groove ceiling in the living room enhance the cozy atmosphere. Upstairs, the bathroom includes an updated vanity and tiled floor for a clean, modern touch. Additional highlights include an attached one-car garage, basement laundry, and plenty of storage space. This home offers a perfect balance of character, comfort, and updates—ready to welcome its next chapter.
