Description:

Enjoy lake life on one of Alexandria's most sought-after chains with this charming rambler on the shores of Lake Le Homme Dieu! Situated on a beautifully level .73-acre lot, this property offers the rare combination of space, usability, and direct access to the highly desirable lake. The ease of main-level living shines throughout, with over 2,000 finished square feet on the main floor, including 2 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms (full, ¾, and half). The spacious living room is anchored by a cozy gas fireplace, while the spacious four-season porch steals the show with a full wall of windows showcasing stunning lake views year-round. Downstairs, the unfinished basement offers over 1,600 square feet of opportunity—ready for your vision to expand and add value. Built in 1961, this home reflects subtle mid-century design influences, emphasizing simplicity and a connection to the outdoors—with multiple access points to nature that help blur the line between indoor comfort and the beauty of the lakeside setting. Additional highlights include an attached two-stall garage and a versatile second garage—perfect for storing lake toys or transforming into a future entertainment space. Step outside and you'll find the true standout feature: a near-perfect lot with a gentle, level approach to the water. Whether it's yard games, bonfires, or days spent on the lake, this property is designed to draw you outdoors and make the most of Minnesota lake living. Make a point to see this one today!
