Description:

Looking for solid house with room for the horses or that dream food plot? One thing Itasca County does not have is acreage of tillable pasture- and this property has it! Plus it adjoins hundreds of acres of public land. Brand new septic in 2024, added A/C and heat pump recently. This house has a nice basement excellent for storage. Even better, the seller will escrow funds for the home to be painted after closing as weather is not currently permitting painting. This traditional farm house has everything you need with two living spaces, 3 bedrooms and hard surface counter tops! Rural living has never been so popular and in this price range, hard to find a solid structure with excellent land adjoining public access to hundreds of acres!
