Description:

Step outside and you'll notice it right away—this yard is protected. Surrounded by mature trees, the 3.5-acre setting blocks the wind and gives you privacy that's hard to match. Trails run through the trees for walking and riding. There's a fire pit tucked back in the trees overlooking the pond, and a large maintenance-free deck off the home. Inside, the home is well cared for and updated where it matters most. High-quality Andersen windows bring in natural light, and the main level offers a large living room plus a separate sitting area. The kitchen has been refreshed with new countertops and stainless appliances, and the primary suite includes double vanities and a private bath. The lower level adds even more usable space. Not just cosmetic—done right, with a new electrical panel, natural gas added, and a newer central AC already in place. The garage is on a different level than what you typically see—deep, wide, and built for real use. A portion is insulated and heated with a wood stove. Finished with a low-maintenance brick exterior and set on a tar road just 25 minutes to Fargo-Moorhead, this is a home that's been consistently cared for and improved over time.
