Description:

If cabins could talk, this one would tell quite the story. This whimsical, seasonal five-bedroom lake cabin is set in a magical location and has hosted over half a century of family fun. Situated between Little Wolf and Spring Lake, the property features over 400 feet of frontage on each side. An expansive deck and boardwalk provide easy access to the lakeshore, with a charming "tea house" along the way that serves as a screened porch, boathouse, and extra sleeping quarters. The original cabin features a kitchen, dining area, bathroom, bedrooms, and a living room with a unique fireplace built with stones from around the world! Later, to accommodate the growing family a guest house with a mini-kitchen and bath was added. The two buildings are now connected by a solarium/gazebo, offering the perfect central spot for morning coffee. Little Wolf Lake spans 528 acres with a depth of 24 feet. It is an excellent spot for anglers, who can expect to find a variety of fish including walleye and largemouth bass. This is one you won't want to miss!
