Raw Land

20AC County Road 9
Verndale MN 56481

Status: Pending

Description:

Approximately twenty acres of timber and open meadow just southeast of Sebeka. Fresh air, towering trees, and true Northwoods quiet the moment you step out of the truck.

Roughly 4 acres of mature Norway pine anchor the property with the kind of presence you just don't stumble across every day. A clean, open 5-acre field sits at the heart of the land and is ready for a home, cabin, or hobby farm. The rest of the property is heavily wooded with a solid mix of oak, Norway pine, poplar, and birch. All high, usable ground throughout. A gravel road runs the east property line and direct access off the paved road keeps it accessible without giving up the privacy.

If you hunt, you'll understand immediately. The land sits in close proximity to thousands of acres of public ground known for deer, turkey, bear, and more. The resident wildlife is real and year round. This is the kind of property you set up camp on and never want to leave.

Whether you're building a homestead, running a hobby farm, or looking for your forever hunting property, this one checks the boxes. But honestly, no description does it justice. Walk this piece and you'll feel it. The stillness, the solitude, the sense that opportunity is everywhere you look. Northern Minnesota land like this doesn't come around often. Come take a walk and see for yourself. agent is related to the seller.
