Description:

Settle into the quiet rhythm of Ten Mile Lake, where 4.37 wooded acres and 128 feet of shoreline create your own private slice of “up north” serenity. This 2,872 sq. ft. year round home is designed for easy, comfortable living—morning coffee on the 10x34 lakeside covered deck, evenings unwinding by the water, and long weekends filled with family, friends, and fresh air. Inside, the main floor flows effortlessly from the open kitchen and dining area to the lake-facing living room, keeping everyone connected. The private primary suite becomes your personal retreat, complete with peaceful lake views, porch access, and a warm, inviting air bath with in floor heat. A dedicated office and spacious laundry room make everyday life feel simple and organized. Follow the wide, lit staircase to the upper level, where two bedrooms with new windows and lighted closets welcome guests or family. The lower-level walkout adds even more flexibility, a relaxed family room and second kitchen perfect for hosting, long stays, or multigenerational living. Outdoors, the property feels like a park: paved drive, paver walkways, in-ground sprinkler system, a 26x50 heated shop for hobbies or storage, a lakeside shed for gear, and a fenced garden with five apple trees ready for fall picking. Ten Mile Lake’s 5,080 acres invite you to fish, boat, swim, or simply drift along on a summer afternoon. Just minutes from Hackensack and Walker, you’re close to everything that makes this area special—summer concerts, local restaurants, boutique shops, Deep Portage Nature Preserve, the Paul Bunyan Trail, and year round local events. Wrapped in mature trees and surrounded by nature’s quiet, this property offers the kind of relaxed lifestyle people dream about when they think of “up north” living.
