Description:

Set on 136 feet of shoreline on desirable Lake Ida, this 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom multi-level home offers the space, setting, and lake views that make every season feel special. Built in 1979 and situated on 1.07 acres, this property combines classic character with a warm and functional layout across 2,722 finished square feet. The heart of the home is the inviting family room, where large windows frame sweeping lake views, an exposed beam vaulted ceiling adds architectural charm, and a gas-burning fireplace creates the perfect cozy gathering space. The informal dining room also captures the beauty of the lake, while the family room walkout leads directly to the backyard patio for effortless indoor-outdoor living. Hardwood floors add warmth to the living room and formal dining room, while tiled floors flow through the kitchen, informal dining area and front entry. The spacious primary suite includes a walk-in closet, and the four-level split design provides comfortable separation of living and bedroom spaces, including additional lower-level bedrooms and abundant storage. Outside, enjoy a slight but gradual slope to the water's edge with a sandy beach and easy lake entry ideal for swimming, relaxing, and lakeside entertaining. A fenced garden area, small storage shed, and attached 3-stall garage complete this well-rounded lake property on sought-after Lake Ida. Schedule your viewing today!
