Description:

Timeless and captivating! This home looks like it came right out of a luxury real estate catalog with the perfect combination of warm and cozy textures and feels. More than aesthetically pleasing, this house offers additional features that set it apart from others such as the high end appliances, exception functionality for the active family and amazing exterior spaces. Sunsets from the front covered porch over Lake Le Homme Dieu are absolutely to die for and are complemented so nicely by the 900 sq ft backyard paver-patio!

Stepping inside, the vibes are just right! Open floor plan, amazing natural light, charming gas fireplace and an updated kitchen that you will be proud to host in! Just off the living area may be your new favorite year-round hangout space... panoramic views and a cozy gas stove make this sunroom a show stopper! Other main level features include the large mudroom, beautiful powder room and access to your 3-stall heated garage that is so clean you wouldn't even believe this home is lived in!

Head upstairs and you will enjoy amazing views from nearly every room including the executive-style master bedroom complete with not one but TWO walk-in closets. Two large additional bedrooms, office, laundry room and a full bath are also found on the upper level.

The recently finished off lower level provides a large family room that walks out to the patio, bedroom four, a tiled-shower bath and lots of storage!

Additional features to note include the 12x18 storage shed, irrigated yard, two year old roof and tons of exterior green space! Just minutes North of Alexandria and on the backside of this one-entrance neighborhood, you cannot beat the location! Get your showing setup today but I will warn you... You're going to love it!!
