Waterfront: Jack Lake

Status: Active

Description:

Tucked among towering pines and the peaceful beauty of northern Minnesota, this exceptional 10.6-acre lake property offers 475 feet of pristine shoreline on the crystal-clear waters of Jack Lake. With no covenants or restrictions, you'll have the freedom to create the lake retreat you've always imagined—whether it's a cozy cabin in the woods, a family getaway, an oversized garage and camper, or a private up-north escape. Jack Lake is renowned for its remarkable water clarity, depths exceeding 100 feet, and outstanding fishing opportunities, making it a true hidden gem for anglers, boaters, and nature lovers alike. The property's mature pine forest creates a warm and inviting Northwoods atmosphere filled with tranquility, wildlife, and the soothing sounds of the lake. Located just 15 minutes from the friendly small town of Walker, you'll enjoy easy access to charming restaurants, local shops, and excellent golf courses while still feeling worlds away from the hustle and bustle. This is the kind of property where lifelong memories are made around campfires, morning coffee on the dock, and endless summer days on the water. Adjacent to state forest land on the northside and lakeshore to the north, never a neighbor or a dock on that side of your lakeshore!
