Waterfront: Whitefish Lake

Status: Active

Description:

Completed in 2025 and situated on 3.83 private acres with nearly 300 feet of shoreline on coveted Lower Whitefish Lake, this extraordinary lakefront estate offers a rare combination of luxury, privacy, recreation, and resort-style living. Surrounded by towering Norway and White Pines, the property features a stunning main residence, a separate Carriage House, and the Moose Lodge recreation building—creating an exceptional setting for entertaining, hosting family and friends, or simply enjoying the Northwoods lifestyle at its finest.

Inside the main home, soaring vaulted ceilings, rich hardwood floors, and a dramatic floor-to-ceiling stone fireplace anchor the Great Room. The inviting three-season porch features its own fireplace and opens to an expansive covered deck overlooking the wooded grounds and lake beyond. The Crow's Nest provides a unique retreat, ideal for a private office, reading room, or additional guest accommodations.

Outdoor amenities include a private sports court, an outdoor sauna, a hot tub retreat nestled among the pines, and scenic walking trails throughout the property. The nearly 300 feet of shoreline offer exceptional swimming, boating, fishing, and direct access to the renowned Whitefish Chain, with nearby sandbars and unforgettable west-facing sunsets.

With over 5,200 finished square feet, four garage stalls, multiple gathering areas, and an unmatched collection of amenities, this is far more than a lake home—it is a legacy property designed for generations of memories.
