Description:

Rare opportunity to own 137 acres in highly sought-after Butler Township, where properties like this seldom come on the market. This 3-bedroom, 1-bath home offers the perfect combination of country living, recreation, and exceptional hunting opportunities.

Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the diverse landscape featuring expansive pine groves, open fields, and prime wildlife habitat. The area is renowned for producing record-breaking whitetail bucks, making this a true hunter's paradise. Adding even more value, the north boundary of the property adjoins state land, providing direct access to additional hunting and outdoor recreation opportunities.

The property is well-equipped with a 2-stall garage, shed and old milk house offering ample storage or workspace. Whether you're looking for a year-round residence, hunting retreat, hobby farm or investment property, this unique acreage offers endless possibilities.

Don't miss your chance to own this exceptional property with abundant wildlife, privacy, and room to roam.
