Description:

One hundred feet of pristine Detroit Lake frontage frames this stunning new construction — a rare opportunity to own a lakeside retreat built with the discerning buyer in mind. Step inside and the home announces itself immediately: a chef's kitchen appointed with Z Line commercial-grade appliances, rich granite countertops, and thoughtful details like under-cabinet lighting and an in-counter microwave. Whether you're hosting a summer gathering or a quiet morning for two, this kitchen is built to perform. The great room opens into an expansive, light-filled living space anchored by a statement fireplace and floor-to-ceiling lake views. The open-concept flow between kitchen, dining, and living creates a seamless environment for entertaining — where every guest naturally gravitates toward the water. Four bedrooms and three bathrooms offer space and flexibility for families, guests, or the weekend crowd. When the day slows down, step out onto the front deck or retreat to the covered porch — perfect for morning coffee, afternoon rain, or an evening under the stars.
