Description:

If you have been dreaming of country living, this 17 acre parcel may be just what you're looking for. This property has one of the most beautiful meadows I've seen. Tucked among mature trees and surrounded by nature, this property offers exceptional privacy and a peaceful rural setting. A former homestead, the property does have an existing well, electric, a barn that may be salvageable, and a homesite ready for new possibilities.

With some vision and effort, this property could be transformed into a wonderful place to call home, hobby farm, hunting retreat, or private residence.

There are many abandoned buildings and a mobile home that appears to be uninhabitable. Property is being sold as-is.
