Description:

Once again, stunning has come to the market. This home on Lake Aaron offers level lake shore on approx. 2.65 acres and privacy with a mature natural barrier that allows you to have your own oasis. Not only is this barndominium stylish, it is stunning. Have you always wanted a barndominium but didn't want to deal with all the building details, well step into this newly built barndo. It features high end granite slabs, custom walnut cabinets in the house and garage, a cascading stone fireplace that rises to the ceiling, adorned aspen lined ceilings, custom tile showers and a lakeside porch with panoramic lake views. This home is the perfect compliment to downsizing and living at the lake or having a cabin that has loads of flex space for additional guests, games and gatherings. The garage is additional living space offering a full wet bar with custom granite, finished epoxy floor, tall ceiling, oversized garage doors and views of the lake. This may be only a two bed, two bath, but it is loaded with storage. The upstairs has storage galore, the primary closet could be another bedroom, certainly a home office and walk in closet (with no shortage of space). The pantry is ideal for that coffee bar and all the summer fixings. You will appreciate the craftsmanship and ornate detail of this home. As you enter you'll feel a sense of amazement and leave feeling a sense of relief that you can live in a truly turn key home that is virtually maintenance free. This is one you need to see to truly appreciate.
