Description:

10+ acres adjoining state land and a pond view to boot. This property needs some work but the location and the possibilities are endless. The pole shed has an area that can be heated with wood and the fireplace in the home does work and heats the home nicely. Home has a new furnace as of winter of 2025 and a new septic in 2026. Laundry is in the basement but there are also hook ups on the main level so it could be brought up. The vaulted ceilings and the open concept kitchen with the view of the pond are what makes this property worth coming to see. The backyard still has the landscaping blocks which housed many perennials and annuals and was a paradise to see. Peace and serenity with a bit of work will make this property your forever home.
